About the Tour

Creation Museum Christmas & Village Spectacular Light Displays

Your Christmas Town adventure will begin in the Garden of Lights, our Eden Botanical Gardens! Stroll through the gardens amid the breathtaking display of thousands of multi-colored lights. Each year, we add new designs and more color throughout the garden trails, so your experience is never the same!

About the Creation Museum- The state-of-the-art Creation Museum allows you to venture through biblical history, stunning exhibits, botanical gardens, planetarium, zoo, zip line adventure course, and much more. This 75,000-square-foot facility has welcomed millions of guests since opening in Petersburg, Kentucky.

About The Ark

An unforgettable evening of festive lights, live music/shows, holiday dining, gift shopping, and more at the life-size Noah's Ark

Ark Encounter features a full-size Noah's Ark, built according to the dimensions given in the Bible. Spanning 510 feet long, 85 feet wide, and 51 feet high, this modern engineering marvel amazes visitors young and old. Ark Encounter is situated in beautiful Grant County in Williamstown, Kentucky Exhibits -Travel back in time on a mile-long scenic bus ride and be amazed when the massive Ark comes into view. Our life-size Noah's Ark is three exhibits in one—the massive structure itself, the incredible craftsmanship, and the beautifully fabricated teaching exhibits. The combination of all three will inspire you to think differently about the biblical account of Noah's Ark. State of the Art Exhibits Looking up at the massive structure and incredible workmanship of the hull is only the beginning of your encounter with the Ark. Our commitment to historical accuracy and artistic excellence continues inside on three decks full of beautifully crafted teaching exhibits that will inspire you to think differently about the biblical account of Noah's Ark.

Future Derby champions at Hermitage Farm

Celebrates Kentucky's unique agricultural heritage and the signature industries that make us a place like nowhere else. Experience our renowned thoroughbred operations, sustainable, organic farm-to-table dining, bourbon tastings, and contemporary artwork displayed in a 19th-century estate reimagined through 21st-century eyes.

Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum

The Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum, located in downtown Nashville, has been called the “Smithsonian of country music,” celebrated for its broad cultural impact, educational mission, and unrivaled collection of historically important artifacts related to country music. Chartered by the state of Tennessee in 1964

EXPERIENCE THE THRILL OF THE OPRY ON A BACKSTAGE TOUR

Get up close to where country music stars and legends make history every week, live on the Opry. Explore our American country roots and let us show you around the house with a guided backstage tour. Kick things off with Garth Brooks and Trisha Yearwood in our immersive theater experience, then hang out backstage, get insider stories, see where the show is broadcast on Circle TV and WSM Radio, and so much more!

Fiddle Dee Farms is proud to present Nashville’s award-winning dinner show: We Need A Lot of Christmas Dinner Show

We Need A Lot Of Christmas is back more music, dancing and fun than ever. Fiddle Dee Farms is proud to team up with the producers of some of your favorite shows in Pigeon Forge and a few fan favorites from the Nashville theater scene, to present a one-of-a-kind holiday dinner show experience.

The Grand Ole Opry

A weekly American country music stage concert in Nashville, Tennessee, founded on November 28, 1925, by George D. Hay as a one-hour radio "barn dance" on WSM. Currently owned and operated by Opry Entertainment (a division of Ryman Hospitality Properties, Inc.), it is the longest-running radio broadcast in U.S. history.^{[1][2]} Dedicated to honoring country music and its history, the Opry showcases a mix of famous singers and contemporary chart-toppers performing Country, bluegrass, Americana, folk, and gospel music as well as comedic performances and skits.^[3] It attracts hundreds of thousands of visitors from around the world and millions of radio and internet listeners.

Jack Daniel’s Distillery

Explore the historic Jack Daniel's Distillery on this guided tour from Nashville. Embark on a tasting tour of the distillery and sample several tastings of premium Tennessee whiskey. You also have free time to walk through the nearby town, famous for their Tennessee Walking Horse, and downtown Lynchburg.

Tennessee Christmas Cruise Aboard the General Jackson Paddle Boat

This musical Christmas treat celebrates the tremendous legacy of holiday favorites from some of Tennessee’s greatest musical stars like Garth Brooks, Blake Shelton, Reba McEntire, Luke Bryan plus many more. From the Great Smoky Mountains, we’ll hear bluegrass and Americana styled holiday hits and from the heart of Memphis, we’ll feature some Christmas rhythm and blues from the King of Rock and Roll himself, Elvis Presley. Our show culminates with a touching and joyful.
