Key West, Florida: Forever in vacation mode, Key West is all about kicking back. But it's not just a beach town. There are also history, culture, nature, and incredible diving and fishing. Stroll through historic Old Town to see the area's famous conch houses and where Ernest Hemingway used to live. Or take the ferry out to Dry Tortugas, a stunning, mostly underwater national park where you can snorkel with parrotfish and tour a Civil War site. Seafood and key lime pie are musts, but Cuban food is up there too (after all, Key West is just a stone's throw from Havana). Once the sun goes down (everyone watches from Mallory Square), head to Duval Street to visit the legendary Sloppy Joe's.

Morikami Museum and Japanese Gardens:

The 16 acres that surround Morikami's two museum buildings include expansive Japanese gardens with strolling paths, resting areas, our world-class bonsai collection and lakes teeming with koi and other wildlife. The wider 200-acre park features nature trails, pine forests, and picnic areas.

The Marvel of Coral Castle: A Modern-Day Mystery: Step into this architectural marvel constructed single-handedly by Edward Leedskalnin from 1923 to 1951. Using only basic tools, he moved and carved massive limestone blocks, some weighing several tons. From the perfectly balanced 9-ton gate to intricate celestial carvings, the castle defies conventional engineering explanations.

Welcome to Robbie's Marina of Islamorada: Home of the world-famous tarpon feeding! Here, you can discover the exciting things to do in the Florida Keys during your stop at Robbie's.

Jungle Queen Island Dinner and Show Cruise: You'll enjoy a fully narrated sightseeing cruise down the "Venice of America," Fort Lauderdale's New River. You'll learn the who, what, when, and how much along Millionaire's Row with homes of the Rich and Famous, spectacular Mega Yachts, and sights beyond belief. You'll then arrive at our private tropical isle, where you'll be treated to an All-You-Can-Eat BBQ Dinner featuring baby back ribs, chicken, and all the fixin's. During Dinner, there will be live entertainment and after dinner, a laugh-out-loud Variety Show complete with live comedy, magic, music, and more! Be sure to take a few minutes to tour our beautiful tropical isle with lush foliage, alligators, and tropical birds.

Theater of the Sea: Lagoons and lush, tropical gardens are home to dolphins, sea lions, sea turtles, fish, sharks, stingrays, alligators, and birds. Our mission is to provide a wonderful home for our animals while sharing them with visitors in up close and personal shows and interaction programs. Loving and caring since 1946, we are family owned and located in the Florida Keys. We will see (3) shows on this day.
