Christmas at Biltmore at 6:00PM will once again enchant. Candlelight Christmas Evenings invites guests to experience Biltmore House illuminated with the glow of candlelight and firelight, accompanied by live music and the iconic 55-foot Norway spruce on the front lawn. Biltmore House guests will also be offered to take in thousands of holiday decorations that transform the estate into a winter-wonder-land.

The 2025 National Gingerbread House Competition: National Gingerbread House Display, which will showcase all Competition entries exclusively at The Omni Grove Park Inn & Spa. Explore an array of exquisite gingerbread houses meticulously crafted by talented competitors from across the nation in the grandest gingerbread house display of all. It all began with a small group of gingerbread houses built by community members in 1992 as another way to celebrate the holiday season. The Omni Grove Park Inn National Gingerbread House Competitions would be one of the nation's most celebrated and competitive holiday events. As the event grew, so did the caliber of judges and competitors. Our panel of judges represents nationally renowned food and media professionals, and the level of competition has attracted the highest quality of design, artistry and pastry expertise. The competition has merited broadcast cover age by NBC's TODAY Show, ABC's Good Morning America, the Travel Channel, and the Food Network.

Antler Hill Village-Connect past with present...

...and have fun while doing it! Included with admission, an Antler Hill Village® visit invites you to step back in time with exhibits, craft and Farmyard demos, while embracing the present at our Winery, shops, restaurants, Bike Barn, and Pisgah Mountain Views

HISTORY, NATURE AND BEAUTY

A row of cannons pointing across the St. Mary's River into Georgia are silent testimony to the strategic importance of Fort Clinch during the Civil War. Visitors can explore the fort's many rooms, galleries and grounds, and learn about the life of a Union soldier through unparalleled living history programs.

Step aboard our Cumberland Coastal Tour. This 1.5-hour narrated tour is an adventure along the shorelines of two beautiful islands in two different states! View Amelia and Cumberland Islands, where playful dolphins, wild horses, and a rich past await. Cumberland Island's limited daily access makes our scenic cruise the perfect way to enjoy its wildlife and history. Breathe in the salty air as our expert captains share captivating stories – from the early days of Amelia Island to the untamed legacy of a national seashore treasure once home to famous names such as the Carnegies, and the Rockefellers.

Welcome to Black Mountain, NC, "The Little Town that Rocks!"

Black Mountain, NC calls itself "The Little Town that Rocks," welcoming visitors to pull up a rocking chair on "The Front Porch of Western North Carolina," breathe deeply of the clear mountain air, and relax. Stroll the downtown historical district and browse unique locally owned shops and art galleries. Taste the wide selection of culinary options, including locally brewed beer and locally roasted coffee, and dine inside or outside. Enjoy live music at pubs and restaurants. Stay the night in a bed & breakfast inn or a rustic cabin.

The Friday Night Seafood Buffet at The Omni Grove Park Inn (in Asheville, NC) is hosted at the Blue Ridge Artisanal Buffet. It features expansive mountain views alongside an all-you-can-eat spread of fresh oysters, crab legs, seafood boils, and action stations, as well as American Favorite's.

Stable Café Loft

The Stable Café Loft, located just above the Stable Café, originally served as a hay storage area for the Vanderbilt stable. That rustic past is nowhere to be found today. Instead, gleaming wood floors and a vaulted ceiling bring historic charm to the graciously renovated structure overlooking George Vanderbilt's home. Located adjacent to Biltmore House, the Stable Café Loft is a wonderful venue for groups seeking privacy and convenience.
